Disability Services and Accommodations for Students

Types of Accommodations

Accommodations are determined individually through collaboration with Access & Testing Services. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Lecture Access: Audio recordings, screen reader-accessible content, instructor or peer notes, transcription, or sign language services.
- Academic Aids: Use of tools like calculators, computers, spell checkers, and text-to-speech devices.
- Assistive Technology: Screen readers and magnifiers.
- Interpreters/Transcriptionists: Available upon request; early registration recommended.
- Parking: Handicap-accessible spaces are marked and available.
- Mobility Access: Wheelchair users should report access issues.
- Testing Accommodations: Options include extended time, quiet environments, assistive technology, scribes, and spell checkers.

Request Process:

- Student Request: Submit via the UACCB Request for Accommodations Form or contact Access & Testing Services directly at 870-612-2056 or 870-612-2013 or access@uaccb.edu.
- Make a request in person: You can begin the request process at the Access & Testing Services Office in the Main Classroom Building.
- Provide Disability Documentation: Must include a clear diagnosis, student's name, professional credentials, and how the disability affects functioning. Acceptable documents include IEPs, 504 plans, or a Summary of Performance.
- Interactive Process: A meeting is scheduled between Access Services and the student to discuss needs and complete paperwork.
- Notification: Accommodation Letters are sent via DocuSign to students and instructors.
- Continued Communication: Students must notify Access Services if classes change to update accommodation letters and if they enroll the following semester.

Limits: Personal services (e.g., caregiving, transportation) are not provided. Accommodations from high school are not automatically transferred. Students must self-identify and follow the procedure to make a request for accommodations.
