Campus Operations

I. Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this policy is to set rules for designating multi-occupancy restrooms, changing rooms, and sleeping quarters for the exclusive use of males or females in compliance with Arkansas law. This policy does not apply to a single-occupancy restroom, changing room, or sleeping quarter, or a family restroom, changing room, or sleeping quarter.

Employees, students, and visitors to campus are prohibited from entering a restroom or changing room that is designated for the exclusive use of females or males unless he or she is a member of the designated sex or the individual's use of the restroom or changing room falls within one of the exceptions set out in this policy.

II. Definitions

- A. "Changing room" means a room or area in which a person may be in a state of undress in the presence of others, including without limitation a locker room or a shower room;
- B. "Female" means an individual who naturally has, had, will have, or would have but for a congenital anomaly or intentional or unintentional disruption the reproductive system that at some point produces, transports, and utilizes eggs for fertilization;
- C. "Male" means an individual who naturally has, had, will have, or would have but for a congenital anomaly or intentional or unintentional disruption the reproductive system that at some point produces, transports, and utilizes sperm for fertilization;
- D. "Multi-occupancy" means a space designed for use by multiple persons simultaneously;
- E. "Restroom" means a room that includes one or more toilets or urinals;
- F. "Sex" means an individual's biological sex, either male or female; and
- G. "Sleeping quarter" means a room with a bed in which more than one individual is housed overnight.

III. Designations of Multi-Occupancy Restrooms and Changing Rooms

The Director of Facilities and Auxiliary Services shall designate each multi-occupancy restroom and changing room in every building or related facility occupied by the campus for the exclusive use of females or males. A sign shall be posted outside of each multi-occupancy restroom and changing room indicating if it is for the exclusive use of females or males. The Director of Facilities and Auxiliary Services may redesignate a multi-occupancy restroom or changing room designated for exclusive use by one sex to a designation for exclusive use by the opposite sex as needed.

IV. Designations of Sleeping Quarters

The Director of Facilities and Auxiliary Services shall designate each sleeping quarter in every building or related facility occupied by the campus for the exclusive use of females or males. The Director of Facilities and Auxiliary Services shall keep a written or electronic record of the designation assigned to each sleeping quarter. The Director of Facilities and Auxiliary Services may redesignate a sleeping quarter designated for exclusive use by one sex to a designation for exclusive use by the opposite sex as needed.

V. Use of Exclusively Designated Restrooms, Changing Rooms, and Sleeping Quarter

Every restroom, changing room, or sleeping quarter that is designated for the exclusive use of females or males shall only be used by a member of the designated sex. A person shall not be required to share a sleeping quarter with a member of the opposite sex. A person shall not enter a restroom or changing room that is designated for the exclusive use of females or males unless he or she is a member of the designated sex or falls within one of the exceptions listed below.
